Welcome

The executive board welcomed a new attendee to the meeting, Jacquiline Aderhold of E-Bay. Each Board Member introduced themselves to the attendee and welcomed her to the association and board meeting. Jacquiline was informed of the advantages of board meetings and encouraged to continue active participation in the advancement of the International Association of Interviewers.

Midwest Chapter Executive Board Elections (terms expire in May)

The Chapter Chair position is open for the next board election. Current Marketing and Event Planning Chair Jamieson Ganal said he will consider applying for the Chapter Chair Position. If this application is submitted, the position of Marketing and Event Planning Chair needs to be filled.

The two Vice Chair positions are currently open for the upcoming election

The Secretary Position is also open for the election.

It was agreed that Jay Ganal and Carrie Baritsky will combine to get the message out regarding open board positions. It was determined that one to two weeks would be needed for this to be accomplished.

Executive Director Tony Paixio offered to get message out via the IAI Website.

Emily Kuhn volunteered to pull a list for those who checked an interest in IAI Chapters during past surveys.

All Executive Board Members were encouraged to get the message out regarding the upcoming board elections.

The Executive Board decided that the next chapter event (meeting) will be held on Friday, March 26, 2021, 10:00 a.m.. This will be an education event with a selling (IAI) component. Wayne Hoover or Tony Paixio will be a speaker speaker and (topic to be determined) and possibly Tim Lapinski to speak about the benefits of the IAI. The open executive board positions will be announced and requests for open board member applications requested. This will give time for applications to be submitted prior to the election.

It was discussed that, at an undetermined future event, a request to call for IAI/CFI and WZ members to volunteer to present topics for future events. A Speaker time limit of 30 minutes was suggested.

The Executive Board Member Election is to be on Friday, April 9, 2021, at 10:00 a.m.
